

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Visualization Research Group is looking for a student assistant who can help and support us in our research in the scope of the research project “vgiReports: Accessible Reporting of Spatiotemporal Geographic Information Leveraging Generated Text and Visualization (Read more details about this project here)”

TITLE OF POSITION: Student Assistant

SUPERVISORS: Prof. Dr. Fabian Beck, Shahid Latif

ESTIMATED HOURS PER WEEK: Negotiable

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Doing data collection, preprocessing, and basic data analysis
- Designing and programming visualizations in D3js and JavaScript
- Helping in conducting user studies

REQUIREMENTS:

- Seeking someone who has a positive attitude, demonstrates flexibility, and is willing to learn new things
- Studying computer science or related field
- Interested in data analysis and visualizations
- Good programming skills
- Comfortable having communications in English

CONTACT:

Interested students can contact Shahid Latif shahid.latif@uni-due.de with the subject [SA - [YOUR NAME]].